

Useful Multicultural Links

This website provides information and services to assist health professionals to communicate with non English speaking communities throughout the ACT. There are over 400 publications on health in a wide range of languages and new publications are added regularly.

<http://www.health.nsw.gov.au/living/index.html>

Health practitioners who work with culturally and linguistically diverse communities can use this directory to find reliable translated health information.

<http://www.healthtranslations.vic.gov.au/>

'Diversity Works' is a policy of the Australian Government to promote the benefits for business and the economy of utilizing the cultural and linguistic skills of the Australian workforce.

<http://www.diversityaustralia.gov.au/>

This Website aims to promote optimal quality healthcare based on improved clinical diagnosis and assessment practices, and to ensure that health services and programs are responsive to the social, cultural, linguistic and religious values and practices of Australia's diverse population.

<http://www.dhi.gov.au/>

FECCA is involved in community education and advocacy for Australians from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds, human and cultural rights.

<http://www.fecca.org.au/>

The Home and Community Care (HACC) Program provides a range of basic support services to frail older people and people with disabilities who are experiencing difficulties in managing daily tasks but who wish to continue living at home. The Program also supports their carers and families.

http://www.health.vic.gov.au/hacc/hacc_victoria/brochure.htm

The Health Translations Online Directory enables health practitioners and those working with culturally and linguistically diverse communities to easily find reliable translated health information. Health information is available in 55 languages.

http://www.dhhs.tas.gov.au/agency/.. TranslatedHealthResourceListjun04.pdf

Links directory for Ageing and Community Care

<http://www.health.qld.gov.au/hacc/links.asp>

Moreland Online Community Directory assists you in accessing information in the online community information database. The directory contains a wide range of information, including contact details, about community groups and services in Moreland as well as other areas.

<http://www.moreland.vic.gov.au/communityportal/linksmulticulturalservices.htm>

Browse for books, cds, dvds and more in your language.

<http://www.library.act.gov.au/actpl/mhtml2.htm>

To set and maintain high national standards in Translating and Interpreting to enable the existence of a pool of accredited translators and interpreters responsive to the changing needs and demography of the Australian culturally and linguistically diverse society

<http://www.naati.com.au>

Multicultural Mental Health Resources <http://www.mmha.org.au/>